

Scenario for 4 and 5-year old toddlers inspired by the book
„The Adventures of Fenek. Easter”.
Elaborated by: Ciocia Karolajna

Topic: Easter.

Main objectives: Encouraging and introducing kids to get to know the tradition of Easter.

Specific objectives:

Child:

- talks about Easter traditions,
- knows and names traditional dishes which should be found in the Easter basket,
- learns how to plan and organize neat work,
- improves skills of putting the pieces of a picture all together,
- learns global reading,
- listens carefully and asks about the things which are not understood,
- uses hands and hand-eye coordination which is needed to draw and cut.

Methods: verbal, active, viewing

Forms: individual and group work

Teaching aids: the book „Adventures of Fenek. Easter”.
riddles connected with Easter and math - attachment 2.
'what's missing' cards - attachment 3.
sheet with a template to cut and decorate - attachment 5.

Process:

1. Greeting. Reading the book „Adventures of Fenek. Easter.”

Asking questions placed on each page of the book. Toddlers answers.

2. Global Reading of the phrase EASTER - attachment 1.

Hanging the board in the well visible place in the room.

3. Riddles connected with Easter and math - attachment 2.

4. „What's missing" game - attachment 3.

The teacher puts the cards in the circle. Children try to remember what the cards represent. Then, the kids close their eyes and the teacher takes one picture. Kids open their eyes and try to guess and describe the card which is missing.

5. Board game - attachment 4.

The task is to roll the dice. The number of dots tells which egg should be found. The kids should describe the colour of the easter egg and count the dots on it.

Suggestion for an afternoon activity:

Technical work: Creating a paper Easter box. The task is to colour and decorate the template. Then, it should be cut out and glued together in a marked space.
